

A National Convention of the Republican party will meet at Chicago, Wednesday, the 23d of June next, for the nomination of candidates to be supported for President and Vice President at the next election.

Republicans, and all who will co-operate with them in supporting the nominee of the party, are invited to choose two delegates from each Congressional District, four at large from each State, two from each Territory, and two from the District of Columbia, to represent them in the Convention.

J. D. CAMERON, Chairman.
THOMAS E. KEOGH, Secretary.

It will be Mr. Speaker Arnold this time.

The Maine decision on Garcelon's questions puts the Governor in as bad a condition as the translation of the cipher dispatches did Tilden.

There are 480 applicants for positions at Madison this winter. This can't be encouraging to all the candidates when only one in twenty will get an appointment.

Ex-Bishop, of Ohio, was pretty liberal with the pardoning power while he was in office. During his term of two years he pardoned 245 convicts. He wanted to swell the Democratic vote all he could.

Now that Tilden has paid his railway bill of $300,000, he should open his barrel and pay what he owes the Government on back taxes. Tilden should settle his big debts before the Democratic Convention meets.

The Indianapolis Journal is making a canvass of the sentiment in Indiana on the Presidential question. The result so far obtained, shows that the strength of the three candidates—Blaine, Grant, and Sherman—are about equally divided in that State. Blaine had 531, Grant 450, and Sherman 514.

In commenting upon the life and character of Dr. E. B. Wolcott, who died on Monday night in Milwaukee, the Evening Wisconsin says: Dr. Wolcott was not only eminent in his profession, but he was not less noticeable as a man. His impressive figure, frank and chivalric bearing, and his gentlemanly manners were so thoroughly combined with a kindness of heart, that he was everywhere regarded as the poor man's friend; and we do not believe that there is a physician in the Northwestern States, who has upon his books so large a sum for benevolent and uncollected accounts in the practice of his profession, as that of the late Dr. E. B.
Wolcott. Even at the age of more than three score and ten, when most physicians retire from his profession, he was as active as in his earlier youth, and he never passed unheeded the call of a poor man to come to his relief with his utmost skill and energy.

The reports from Maine to-day indicate that there is a decided weakening on the part of Garcelon and the Fusion members of the Legislature. He has discovered that to set himself up as a higher authority and a greater power than the Supreme Court of the State, is a degrading assumption and a shock to the moral sense of the people. He not only discovers this fact, but he now sees that he can not withstand the popular indignation against him, and that his continued disregard of all law and decency and will politically kill him and crush the Democratic party. From present indications it seems hardly possible that he can override the decision of the Supreme Court. Garcelon's disabli-cal scheme has disgusted some of the Fusion members, and certain holders of certificates under his count, will refuse to sit in the Legislature. Apparently they are not deprived of all moral sense, and will refuse to become parties to the steal.

It there is one thing above another for which the Greenback members of Congress are noted, it is their extreme liberality in their desire to issue money for the people.
They are magnanimous beyond conception. When they grasp with their minds the sums of money that should be distributed throughout the country, they do not stop at 27 millions, like the pension bill, but they think of hundreds of millions—enough to give every man, woman, or child in the country a snug little fortune. This is the way the twelve or thirteen Greenback men in Congress want to settle the financial question, and bring on the perpetual reign of good fortune among the people. Mr. Weaver, of Iowa, a Greenbacker and a member of Congress, has now a bill before the House of Representatives, which, if it passes, will make rich men of us all, provided the number of dollars expressed on the face of the notes is any measure of their value. He wants all soldiers and sailors who served in the late war, or their heirs, to receive the difference which existed between the value of gold and United States notes during their term of service in the army and navy.
To make this thing even, as the saying is, would require the handsome little sum of five hundred millions of dollars! And that there may be no delay in paying out this money, the bill authorizes the government to go to work at once and manufacture the necessary amount of bills. The liberality on the part of Mr. Weaver may cause a blush on the cheeks of some of our readers, but they should not foster the hope that the bill will ever pass, for it will not be accorded respectful consideration by Congress. The sum is too fabulous, and the motives which created the measure too selfish, to give it the least hope of success. This is one of the wild schemes of the Greenback delu-

MAINE LEGISLATURE.

SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.
AUGUSTA, Jan. 7.—The city is crowded, and is wild with excitement. The Senate was organized by the Fusionists, who elected James De Lawson, presiding officer.
The Republicans did not vote.
The House was called to order, and is now drawing seats.

WARLIKE RUSSIA.

Europe Again Agitated by the Warlike Movement of Russia.

LONDON, Jan. 6.—The Daily Telegraph vouches for the trustworthiness of the communication dated Kensington, Dec. 31, asserting that the distribution of the Russian army shows a striking convergence toward the western portion of the empire and that Russia's effective forces are being increased in far greater proportions than can be justified by the object of filling up the vacancies left by the late Bosnian Turkish war. Within the past few weeks the strong force already quartered in the Western provinces has been increased by four divisions of infantry and one of cavalry. This raises the force along the Western frontier to nearly equal that of the Russian army on a peace footing. Extensive measures of reorganization and improvements in all departments of the service are being pushed forward. The greatest activity also prevails in increasing the means of communication and providing a halting place, military railways are being constructed, and deliveries of supplies for arsenals, building materials, uniforms, etc., are being made on a vast scale, with scarcely any attempt at concealment. The arming of the frontier fortresses is being effected with the utmost promptitude.

STATE OF MAINE.

The Doings at the State Capital—The Republicans Confident of Success.

AUGUSTA, Me., Jan. 6.—There has been a large addition to the number of visitors to the city to-day, and the capacity of the hotels is tested to the utmost, while many are glad to get under a roof in which to sleep in. To-morrow will doubtless bring a large crowd to witness the opening ceremonies.

The original plan to admit persons with tickets has been abandoned, and the general public will be admitted to the capacity of the building, precedence being given members of the Legislature, State officers, and claimants. State officers, members of the Legislature of 1879, ex-governors, judges, members of Congress, United States officers and reporters for the press.

Major General Chamberlain, having assumed command of the military and appointed members of his staff will to-morrow morning publish a card in the Journal stating that the Governor requests him to assume certain responsibilities for the protection of public property at the State House, and makes it known that the building is under the care of Dr. Lancaster, Superintendent of Public Buildings; that he has no control over him or the men on duty as guards at the State House. The police force will be under direction of the Mayor of Augusta. No military force or armed men are there, nor will there be unless made necessary by reason of resistance to the laws, and then only by authorized persons under command of an officer of the civil authorities.

It is said Governor Garcelon has not been aware of the large force kept in the State House, and will have it reduced to the ordinary number.

Orders have been issued to return the arms in the State House to the Adjutant General, and the imposition of an armed guard at the State House to watch the people of the State will be done away with.
The Republicans have been busy during the day trying to influence counted in-members not to take seats, and the Fusionists have been generally active endeavoring to hold their own. It is not believed possible for the Fusionists to obtain a quorum of 76 or even the pretended quorum of 70.

PLYMOUTH CHURCH.

NEW YORK, January 6.—The Plymouth church pews were rented to-night. Budding began promptly, and the first choir was taken by H. B. Claflin at $500 premium. Only one other choice brought the same sum, and the rate speedily fell to $300, at which fourteen pews were taken.

Forty-one pews were sold before the amount of premium bid was less than $200. About sixty more ranged between $100 and $300. The whole number of pews is 300. These and the fixed seats on one side of each aisle were open for choice.
The valuation put upon these is $12,552.
The total amount of premiums bid was $37,437. This is within a few hundred dollars of last year's premiums.

IN MEMORIAM.

Surgeon-General E. B. Wolcott.

MADISON, Jan. 6.—The flag on the Capitol has been at half-mast to-day in respect to the memory of Surgeon-General Wolcott, and universal regret is expressed at his sudden death. Governor Smith issued an order to-day officially announcing the death of Dr. Wolcott, and giving a brief sketch of his remarkable life.

He received the following dispatch this afternoon:

MILWAUKEE, Jan. 6.—To Gov. William E. Smith: You are of course informed of the death of Dr. E. B. Wolcott, a member of his staff in the Academy of Music, and an order to-day officially announcing the death of Dr. Wolcott, and giving a brief
sketch of his remarkable life.

He at once sent the following:

MADISON, Jan. 6.—To Gen. Edw. W.
Hincks, Secy. of Home Affairs: Admiral General Bryant will go to Milwaukee tonight. Please meet him at the Plankinton to-morrow. I desire to pay every respect to the memory of Dr. Wolcott, and will be pleased to have your cooperation, and any suggestions or assistance you may render.

WM. E. SMITH.

General Ed Bryant goes to Milwaukee to consult with friends, and if deemed advisable, a military escort will be furnished suitable to the rank of General Wolcott.

The Lake City Guards, of Madison, and the Chester Rifles, of Watertown, will doubtless be ordered to Milwaukee, should it be deemed advisable to have more military than could be furnished by Milwaukee. Governor Smith will be present in Milwaukee on Thursday, and attend the funeral.

CARFIELD WINS.

COLUMBUS, Jan. 6.—Early this morning it became apparent that no opposition could be brought together that would be able to prevent the nomination of Gen.
Garfield at the caucus to-night of the first ballot. The strength of Matthews, Taft, and Dennison being found altogether too insignificant to give any dignity to the contest, at about noon Governor Dennison, who was the first to recognize the real situation, addressed a letter to the friends of the other candidates announcing his withdrawal as a candidate before the caucus to-night, or, it might better be termed, convention. It became generally understood that there would be no further wrangle, a large majority of the General Assembly having decided that it would not reflect credit upon themselves or friends to further prolong the struggle, which was useless.

At 8 o'clock to night the doors of the hall of the House of Representatives were thrown open, and after the Republican members were seated, the public were allowed to enter and witness the proceedings. Governor Dennison's letter of withdrawal was read. This was followed by the reading of a telegram from Judge Matthews, withdrawing from the field. Ex Attorney-General Taft's name was also withdrawn and General Garfield nominated by acclamation amid the wildest enthusiasm.
The best of feeling prevails over the result, and everybody is apparently well pleased.

A Democratic member, in speaking of the quick work and good feeling, said that the Republican party has won a bigger victory by the settlement of the Senatorial question to-night than it did in October last, when Foster carried the State by 17, 000 majority. While each candidate has worked hard to win, all conducted their campaign with a dignity equal to the position they sought.

SHOPKERE.

The young people of Shopkeree held a watch meeting at Mr. Reuben Kemmerer's on New Year's eve. A good oyster supper was provided, and according to the testimonies of those present, the entertainment was an enjoyable one.

—Mr. Burt and Miss Fyght, of Dane county, spent two days in our village last week, as the guests of Miss Lanta Wilson.

—Mr. Spencer Sweet's little girl, Ida, is very sick with inflammation of the lungs.

—A T. Adams will be in the goods for the next thirty days regardless of cost.

—Our school is again proclaiming welcome calls to all who are thirsting for knowledge.

—The Misses Eva Smith, Ida Kemmerer, Mary Parker, and Mr. Charles Belting have resumed their studies in the Beloit high school.

—Mr. Gradenburg is visiting his sons, John and Dwayne, in our village.

—We are happy to note that Mrs. Dr.
Manly is recovering from an attack of inflammation of the lungs.

—Chester Fisher, who has been visiting his sister in Iowa, returned home last week.

—In the account of the wedding of Mr. and Mrs. Kelly, by some oversight there were omissions in the list of presents.
There should have been mentioned a silver casserole from Mr. and Mrs. William Howard, and solid silver butter dish from T. H. Alexander, of Mason City, Iowa.

—The week of prayer is to be observed by union meetings Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday evenings in the Congregational church, and Thursday, Friday and Saturday in the Methodist church.

—Subscribers for the Gazette at the beginning of the year and get one of the best of papers.

—Mr. Wilson's daughter, who lately came from Nebraska, where she has been an invalid for some time, is rapidly recovering under Dr. Manly's treatment.

—With the breaking up of the ice a bridge way somewhere up the creek, and floated down, lodging this side of the railroad bridge near Tilsbury.

—Those who were bereaved by the death of Mrs. Hannah Milner, desire to express their thanks for the kindly sympathy shown them, and for the many acts of friendliness, in connection with her last hours and her burial.

A BIT OF ROMANCE.

A Maryland Belle Marries a Millionaire who Dies Leaving Her a Million, and then she Marries an Old Sweetheart.

From the Baltimore Telegram, Dec. 23d.

A fashionable wedding was celebrated here to-day around which cluster some romantic incidents illustrative of the old proverb about the course of true love. A few years ago, Mr. Frank Brown, of Carroll county, whose estate adjoints that of his cousin, the late Miss Florence Patterson, (Madame Bonaparte's niece), was engaged to be married to a society belle of decided beauty and large wealth.
The engagement was, however, broken, and Miss Hildely, while traveling in Europe, met Mr. Preston, a wealthy young Boston merchant. He became infatuated with her, and they returned to Baltimore. A few months later, after a brief engagement they were married, and went to Europe on a wedding tour. A few months after the marriage, however, Mr.
Preston who had been in delicate health, died of consumption. Besides her regular share in the estate Mr. Preston left her nearly $1,000,000 in cash. Mrs. Preston brought the remains to Baltimore, and for the past couple of years has been living quietly. Recently she appeared in society and among her other admirers was Brown, her former affianced. He presented his suit, and was awarded 10-day with her hand and heart.

Mr. Brown is an ex-member of the State Legislature, and has one of the finest imported stock farms in Maryland. He was the principal heir to Miss Florence Patterson. Mrs. Preston, or more properly, Mrs.
Brown, is only twenty-five years of age, and beautiful and accomplished. The newly wedded couple will spend their honeymoon in New York, for which city they left after a wedding breakfast at the residence of Mrs. George Patterson on Charles street avenue.

POISON!

Wol De Meyer's Treatment on Catarrh explains the following important facts:

1. That Catarrh of the Bladder becomes a poisonous infection, at first local, and finally constitutional.

2. That, being Constitutional, the infection is beyond the reach of mere local treatments.

3. That impurities in the secretions, and infectious inflammation of the organs named,
infectious inflammation of the organs named,
infectious inflammation of the organs named,

4. That Catarrh of the bladder follows the mucous membrane and causes Deafness, Dyspepsia, Chronic Catarrh, Bronchitis, Leucor-rhea, etc.

5. That smokes, Douches, Inhalations, and Iodine Baths, cannot possibly remove infectious inflammation from the organs named.

6. That an antidote for Catarrh must possess an innocuous affinity for, and the quality of being absorbed by, the purulent mucus wherever located.

Based upon these plain theories, Dr.
Wol De Meyer's Catarrh Cure has proved to be infallible. It not only relieves, it cures Catarrh at any stage. Home testimony:

THE GAZETTE.

WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 7, 1896.
CITY AND COUNTY.

BRIEFLETS.

—Misty and muddy.
—Young Men's Christian Association this evening.
—Prof. Severance's dancing school meets this evening at Apollo hall.
—Sprague's Georgia Minstrels are to be at the Opera house next Tuesday evening.
—Theodore Kendall, of the First ward has built the last season a substantial barn, which cost him about $200.
—The afternoon union prayer meetings at the Baptist church continue to draw a goodly number of worshippers.
—The young ladies of Trinity church are arranging for a holiday bazaar to be given in Lappin's hall January 15.
—Mr. O. H. Fethers was able to call at the Gazette office yesterday afternoon, and his full and permanent recovery seems not far off.
—The teachers of the city schools are expected to be present at the Central school building next Saturday morning at 9 o'clock.
—Mrs. Bridge's lecture is to be given Tuesday evening at Lappin's hall as announced. Tickets are for sale at King's Music and Sutherland's.
—Mr. Salsman has arrived and has begun furnishing up the new Jeffries house, preparatory to opening it. The name "Jeffries house" which was painted on the walls has been taken off, and another name is to be given at the christening—probably the "Grand hotel."
—Kate Thayer's Concert troupe are to beat the Opera house February 5. The troupe is one of the best on the road, and consists of Kate Thayer, soprano; Helen Norman, contralto; Signor Tagliapietra, baritone; Mme. Teresa Carreno, pianist; M. Arbuckle, cornetist and C. B. Pratt, accompanist.
—Mrs. Mattie A. Bridge will deliver her celebrated lecture on "Human Freedom" on Tuesday evening next, January 13, at Lappin's Music hall. Admission 25 cents. The gallery will be reserved for school scholars at 10 cents each.
—The sad news comes to day that Mrs. Dr. Payne, mother of Mr. Charles H. Payne, of this city, had died at the residence of her son Rev. Henry Payne, at Oxford, N. Y. Her remains are to be brought to this city to-morrow for interment, and the funeral services are to be held at the Congregational church to-morrow afternoon at 2 o'clock.
—Charlie Jenkins was grieved yesterday morning on discovering that his Irish setter "Ponto" had died suddenly during the night. The dog was a valuable one, and his owner had refused $150 for him. He procured him from Mr. Parmlee, of Chicago. The dog has a good record for winning prizes, and was one of the best hunting dogs in these parts.
—There is to be a wrestling match at the Opera house, Saturday evening, as will be seen by an announcement made in another column. The match was arranged to take place in Milwaukee, but being unable to secure a place there for that evening, the wrestlers decided to come here. Manager Burdon, of the Milwaukee skating rink, says it is a bona fide match for money, which will add greatly to the interest of the occasion.
—The newly elected officers of Janesville City Lodge No. 93, I. O. O. F., were installed last evening. Among the pleasant incidents of the occasion was the presentation to the Noble Grand B. R. Hill, by C. C. Cheney, of an elegant gold pin of appropriate design representing the virtues of Old Fellowship. Father Cheney has been ill for some time, and it rejoiced all that he had so far recovered as to be able to take an active part in the happy doings. His presentation speech was a fine one, and he delivered another address which was also closely listened to. Mr. Hill responded in a happy manner. Mrs. Bridge was present and made a short address, as did also Rev. G. W. Lawrence, and Capt. Putnam. The occasion was a happy one throughout and was largely attended, the installation being public.
—O. A. Crandall, of Rockford, is in the city, working up the business of the Pioneer Relief Association, a comparatively new organization, based on a rather novel idea. The members on paying their entrance fees and annual assessments are entitled to a certain weekly stipend during sickness, the first class drawing $30 a week, and the other classes less. There is no insurance to be paid at death, but simply a plan for securing financial relief to any one who is kept from work by sickness. Mr. J. H. Balch has been appointed agent for Janesville, Clinton and Milton, and the work of organizing the business here has commenced with very good success. The organization has been in existence in Illinois and Iowa for two years, and is working well, and rapidly increasing in members.
TRAVELERS, stop at the Astor House, New York.
THE WEATHER.
REPORTED BY PRENTICE & EVENSON, DRUGGISTS.
The thermometer at 6 o'clock last night stood at 41 degrees above; at 1 o'clock a. m. to day, at 33 above; at 7 o'clock a. m. at 56 degrees above; and at 1 o'clock p. m. at 59 degrees above. Cloudy.
The indications to-day are, for the lake region, northeast winds, rising barometer, cooler, partly cloudy weather, occasional rain or snow, followed in the western portions by warmer southeast winds, and falling barometer.
SELECT SACKMEN.
At the annual meeting of the Sack Company, last evening, the following officers were elected: Foreman—G. A. Libby.
Assistant Foreman—C. B. Conrad.
Secretary—W. B. Helmstret.
Treasurer—W. B. Branton.
Steward—T. T. Croit.
Vigilance Committee—John Griffith, L. B. Carle and E. B. Heimstret.
Trustee—R. J. Richardson.

FUN FOR FRIDAY.

Next Friday evening there will be a treat of frolic and fun at the Opera house, as Haverly's minstrels have promised to be here then. They will bring plenty of music and much mirth, and the company is made up of true artists in their line. They are genuine colored minstrels, and in their ranks are numbered the best members of the old Georgia minstrels, together with others who have won special praise from the public. The paper which is being spread about town promises great things, but the experience of the past is such that all will feel assured that these promises will be largely realized. The tickets are now on sale at Moseley's, and reserved seats can be selected and secured there.

Sensible Canadian.

Mr. Gadohis, of Brockville, Canada, after being cured of a prostrating malarial disease contracted in Texas, by means of Warner's Safe Pills and Safe Bitters, wrote to us: "I shall never travel in that climate without your Safe Pills and Safe Bitters as a part of my outfit."

ARTISTIC WORK.

We have had our attention called of late to some very fine work executed by Marr & Richards, of Milwaukee, designers and engravers on wood and metal. They do a heavy business also in manufacturing seals, steel stamps, rubber stamps, etc. It is the only house of the kind in the State who do this class of work to any extent. They have been established since 1855, and their business has grown steadily since that time until now they have one of the most extensive trades in the country. They certainly turn out some very artistic work, and in wonderful variety, and they have all the facilities for doing any kind of a job that would naturally fall in that line. The business is so extensive that they keep a large corps of skilled workmen constantly employed, and their orders continue to increase. Their headquarters are at 397 East Water street, Milwaukee, and we advise any of our readers who need anything in that line to open up communication with them.

CHANCE FOR CHARITY.

Mr. E. M. Preston, a former resident of Janesville, writes from Redwood Falls, Minn., where he is now residing, that many in that part of the country are suffering from the effects of the prairie fires which swept over much of that country last fall, destroying much property, and rendering many poor. He says there are many who really need clothing during these cold months, and who at present have no ready means to secure it. Under these circumstances any cast-off garments for men, women or children, would be very acceptable to them, and would serve greatly to help them through the present pinch, which has come though no fault of their own. Mr. Preston writes that if the good folk of the city will send one or more boxes of old clothing there, he will see that they are properly distributed among these needy ones, and Mr. John Davis offers to pack and ship all the clothing that is left at his store, No. 25 West Milwaukee street. Those who have any cast-off clothing would therefore do well to drag it out, bundle it up and leave it at Mr. Davis' store.

DR. OTTO FULS, Reading, O., writes:—"The sale of St. James' Oil, is constantly increasing; it is praised by everybody, and never fails to give entire satisfaction."

THE RENTZ-SANTLEY SHOW.

The Rentz-Santley Novelty Company drew a fair house last night. The audience was almost a strictly male one, only one lady appearing. There was no particular reason for this monopoly on the part of the men folk, for there was nothing objectionable in the show, and those who expected to hear or see anything "broad" were grievously disappointed. It was a fair variety show, the latter part of which was given to a burlesque of "Pinafore." There are some good voices in the troupe, so that the music was fair. The minstrel part of the show was of ordinary merit. Lew Benedict made a good stump speech and Mabel Santley did some very neat work in her skipping rope specialty.

The management did not handle the house very wisely. The whole of the parquet and the front row of the dress circle were kept reserved and the price kept still at seventy-five cents. As a result those who did attend bought only fifty cent tickets, and were consequently forced to crowd into back seats while the main part of the house was left bare, giving the house a bad look. The management were independent, and as a result the people got balky, and there was not the best of feeling existing.

TEACHERS' ATTENTION!

I will hold an examination of candidates for teaching in city schools, on Friday next, the 9th inst., at 9 o'clock a. m., in the Central school building. Certificates will be issued only to persons of some successful experience in teaching. All necessary material will be furnished for the work.

DEATH OF MRS. MILNER.

The residents of Turtleville have been saddened by the death of Mrs. Hannah Milner, wife of Benjamin Milner, which occurred last Saturday, January 31, after a brief illness. She was nearly 70 years of age, and had lived in Turtleville for about twenty years, having removed there from New York State, her former home being between Utica and Rome. She was for herself many warm friends, was generally respected and esteemed, and her death proves a loss to the community as well as a heavy blow to those of the immediate family. Besides the bereaved husband she leaves five children. Mrs. James Raymond and Mrs. Christina, of Turtleville, Mrs. Monaghan, of Dakota, and two sons, one living in Turtleville, and the other near Clinton.
The funeral services were held last Sunday, Rev. W. J. Wilson officiating, and delivering an appropriate and tender sermon. A large number of friends were in attendance, indicating the general sympathy which is felt for the sorrowing ones, and the sadness which is felt in the community. The remains were taken to Clinton for interment.

OAK HILL CEMETERY.

The stockholders of the Oak Hill Cemetery held their annual meeting last evening. Hon. James Sutherland being chosen as Chairman, and Dr. L. J. Barrows Secretary. The report of the Treasurer showed a cash balance on hand of $161.36. The report of the Secretary was also received and placed on file, also the report of the Executive Committee which showed the number of interments, as already given in the Gazette, and the details of the improvements made on the grounds, and other expenditures. Volney Atwood, M. C. Smith, and John C. Jenkins were re-elected Trustees for three years, and adjournment was then taken.

A meeting of the trustees was then held and the annual election of officers resulted in retaining those already in the positions—President, J. J. Pense; Secretary, Dr. L. J. Barrows; Treasurer, John C. Jenkins. Adjourned.

There is some talk of starting a movement for securing a better water supply at the cemetery. At present many who desire to keep flowers and foliage blooming on their lots, find it difficult to secure the necessary water supply. There should also be fountains to further beautify the grounds. Some who have had this matter in mind are desirous of having a well sunk, and a windmill erected to fill a reservoir from which pipes could be run to different parts of the ground, for use in summer. The Association not having the needed money to make these improvements at present, it is probable that a private subscription will be started among the lot owners and others interested. It would certainly prove a great convenience if there was an abundant supply of water in different parts of the grounds, and if fountains be added it will increase the beauty of the grounds greatly. The plan now under consideration calls for an expenditure of nearly $500, which would be sufficient to put it into successful operation, and then private parties could run pipes to their own lots if they choose to do so. The matter is being talked up considerably among those interested, but as yet no active steps have been taken toward securing its success.

An Elegant Preparation

designed to meet the public want for a harmless hair dressing and restorative, is found in Parker's Hair Balsam. It acts like magic, commencing at the very roots, removes dandruff and all humors from the scalp, and never fails to restore gray or faded hair to its original youthful color and beauty. Falling hair is immediately checked by its use, and it produces a growth of beautiful young hair, soft, glossy and luxuriant, that surpasses everyone. These properties added to its exquisite perfume and purity of composition, render it the growing favorite at the toilet table everywhere. Sold in large bottles at only 50 cents and at $1.00 by all first-class druggists.

CITY NOTICES.

THE REASON WHY.—Mr. Fellows, in his "Medical Monthly," gives reasons for the peculiar action of his Hypophosphites in the cure of diseases, which seems to be borne out by facts. From tonic action of the Sympathetic Nerves all the Organic Muscles are strengthened and the patient overcomes his malady simply, pleasantly and rapidly.

Procrastination.
Is a thief, it neglects hygienic laws, and entails loss on its victims. SOZODONT says, "let me preserve the health of your mouth." Procrastination whispers, "wait until your teeth need filling." Break this slavery; use SOZODONT and keep your masticators until old age. Get it at once.

"I Cannot Walk"
without a "flattering in my heart" is the announcement made by many who have overworked their powers in quest of money or pleasure, and who, in the meridian of life, find themselves beyond the enjoyment of the good things for which they have labored so long. They are invalids. To all such the "Pneumatic Syringe" is recommended as an almost certain cure. Taken according to directions, it can do no injury, and will result in permanent good. This is the experience of years. It is the acknowledged tonic of the world, and it seldom fails to supply appetite, strength, good spirits and renewed health. As a tonic it is without a peer. Ask your physician and he will recommend it; go to your druggist and get it; for sale in Janesville by Prentice & Evenson. dec1dw
